

Finding classes at NDI study abroad locations and/or building a possible Study Plan While Abroad

PLEASE NOTE:

- Courses listed in PATH Class Search have been taken by students in the past; however, they may not be available for your term of study. This listing of courses should be used as an example of the types of courses that may be offered in the future.

FOR ALREADY ACCEPTED STUDENTS:

- Using PATH Class Search and building a study plan DOES NOT mean you are enrolled in classes abroad.
- Creating a study plan within PATH Class Search DOES NOT replace the Study Plan While Abroad process provided by your program director.

- ❖ Use PATH Class Search to see course listings for NDI study abroad locations.

- ❖ Choose the term and study abroad location (view list of study abroad campus codes here) in which you are interested, to view possible course options.
- ❖ Click Search.
- ❖ Use the available filters to narrow your search results (subject, department, college, credit hours, core requirements, attributes, etc.).

Course Description

A survey of the art and archaeology of Greece from prehistoric times to the end of the Classical period: its purpose is to introduce the student, using whenever possible the primary sources (monuments and artifacts), to the ancient civilizations of the Aegean and Greece: Minoan, Mycenaean, and Classical Greek. The schedule of class visits to sites, monuments and museums is coordinated as much as possible with school and class trips. Classroom lectures and the readings provide the historical context into which to set the monuments and artifacts. Not intended for students who take A361, or for East Mediterranean Area Studies Track students.

Registration Restrictions

Enrollment is limited to Employee Non-Degree, St. Mary's College, Undergraduate or Undergraduate Non-Degree level students.

Attribute Description

- FNAR - old Core Fine Arts (FNAR)
- WKAL - new Core Art & Literature (WKAL)
- ZOAG - Athens, Greece -AG (ZOAG)
