Stories from Abroad

Dublin, Ireland

February 2020 was about to bring a season of transformation understanding to the University of Dublin. The student-led Dublin City Campus Community (DCC) aims to connect students and provide them with international experiences. This year, DCCC is offering programs taking students through Irish-speaking culture and the city's history.

Meet Lisette Monterroso

Lisette Monterroso began working as the Onsite Coordinator for the Puebla, Mexico Program in January 2003. Since then, she has taken care to create an engaging, safe environment for students and instructors and students as she manages logistics, educational and cultural activities. She enjoys getting to know new people, watching the students get immersed in the new culture, and making a family. During all those years, and after meeting some alumni, she is grateful to know how their experience in Puebla has helped them in their present life. Learn more about the Puebla program here.

Submit Your Story

Tell Us Your Story

Do you have a story to tell and would like to be featured in the study abroad community? We are always looking for student and more stories about the internationalization, appeared on Monday, May 12. The ND International office will be sharing this story with colleagues at the global campus.

Submit Your Story

NDI Staff Overseas

January 2003. Since then, she has taken care to make the study abroad experience for the students an unforgettable one. Her work focuses on creating an engaging, safe environment for students and instructors and students as she manages logistics, educational and cultural activities. She enjoys getting to know new people, watching the students get immersed in the new culture, and making a family. During all those years, and after meeting some alumni, she is grateful to know how their experience in Puebla has helped them in their present life. Learn more about the Puebla program here.

Submit Your Story

Tell Us Your Story

Do you have a story to tell and would like to be featured in the study abroad community? We are always looking for student and more stories about the internationalization, appeared on Monday, May 12. The ND International office will be sharing this story with colleagues at the global campus.

Submit Your Story

Tell Us Your Story

Do you have a story to tell and would like to be featured in the study abroad community? We are always looking for student and more stories about the internationalization, appeared on Monday, May 12. The ND International office will be sharing this story with colleagues at the global campus.

Submit Your Story

Tell Us Your Story

Do you have a story to tell and would like to be featured in the study abroad community? We are always looking for student and more stories about the internationalization, appeared on Monday, May 12. The ND International office will be sharing this story with colleagues at the global campus.