

GPE LOCATION PROFILES

BRAZIL

The GPE in Brazil takes place in the country's biggest city, São Paulo. In this program, students are typically placed in positions in the areas of eCommerce analytics, fintech, education management, non-profit, and real estate management. Students stay in host families and will count with the support of Notre Dame's São Paulo Global Center. All majors are welcome to apply for a placement in Brazil. Students interested in business, economics, ESS, law, or startups will have ample options for a placement. Portuguese or Spanish would be an asset for some positions, but not required. Most positions will be fully operated in English.

Latin America

GPE LOCATION PROFILES

CHILE

The GPE in Chile takes place in the country's capital, Santiago. In this program, students are typically placed in positions in the areas of law, education, environmental sciences, engineering, business and non-profit. Students stay in host families and will count with the support of Notre Dame's Santiago Global Center. A good student fit would include those either majoring or interested in law, business, political science, or Spanish. For some positions, particularly in law, students with Spanish knowledge will take priority.

Latin America

GPE LOCATION PROFILES

CHINA

The GPE in China typically takes place in either Beijing or Hangzhou, although locations may vary. All students will begin the GPE program with a one-week orientation at the Notre Dame Beijing Global Gateway before departing for their placement site. While placements sites in China are subject to availability, past GPE organizations have included Caixin Media, Xiaomi, Inc., and Topsun. Chinese language proficiency is not required for all sites; however, some organizations seek students who are fluent or proficient in Mandarin Chinese. A good student fit would include those who are studying economics, political science, business management, marketing, industrial design, and social sciences.

Visas are required for all non-Chinese citizens to participate in the GPE program in China. The cost of a Chinese visa is not included in the program fee, so students can expect an additional fee of $140.

Asia

GPE LOCATION PROFILES

ENGLAND

The GPE in England takes place in London. The London Global Gateway partners with a variety of organizations including businesses (large corporates and start-ups), non-profits, healthcare providers and Catholic schools. While placements sites in London are subject to availability, past GPE organizations have included the Cleveland Clinic, C3 Collaborating for Health and British Expertise. A good student fit for these placements include those who are studying or are interested in management, health care, including the business side of medicine, event planning and secondary school education; however, opportunities in England are not limited to a particular field of study. All students will have a one week GPE orientation at the London Global Gateway before departing for their placement site. Students will live in Conway Hall, Notre Dame's Global Gateway student residence.

Visas are required for all non-European citizens to participate in the GPE program in England. The cost of a Tier 5 visa is not included in the program fee. The cost is £240 ($315 approx.) for the visa itself (plus additional shipping) + $775 to BUNAC for their sponsorship.

Europe

GPE LOCATION PROFILES

HONG KONG

The GPE in Hong Kong program will begin with a one-week orientation at the Notre Dame Hong Kong Global Center. While placements sites in Hong Kong are subject to availability, past GPE organizations have included Esquel Group, Citigroup, and Teach Unlimited. The experience will be conducted entirely in English and knowledge of a second language is not required. A good student fit would include those who are studying or interested in business and manufacturing, youth education, social work, or banking and finance.

Visas are required in order to participate in the GPE program in Hong Kong. The cost of a Hong Kong visa is not included in the program fee, so students can expect an additional fee of up to $50.

Asia

GPE LOCATION PROFILES

INDIA

The GPE in India typically takes place in different cities including Mumbai, New Delhi or Pune, although locations may vary. All students will begin the GPE program with a one-week orientation hosted by the Notre Dame Mumbai Global Center before departing for their placement site. While placements sites in India are subject to availability, past GPE organizations have included the UN Global Compact Network India, Cooper Hospital, Govardhan EcoVillage, Citi Academy for Special Education, Sloan India Ltd. and Bajaj Electricals Ltd. The experience will be conducted entirely in English and knowledge of a second language is not required. A good student fit would include those who are studying premed, engineering, political science, environmental sciences, or social sciences, but the opportunities in India are not limited to students from a specific field of study.

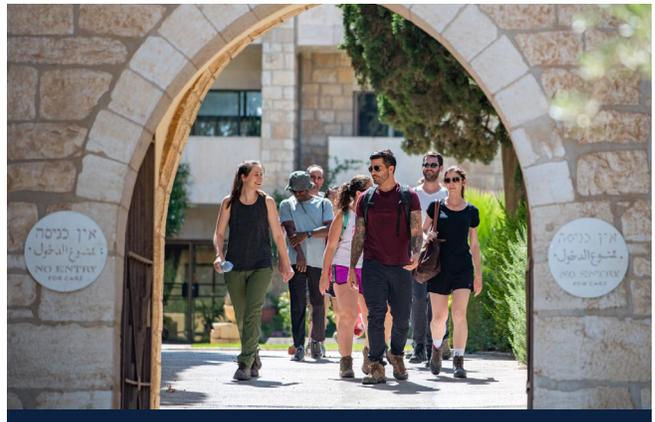

Asia

GPE LOCATION PROFILES

JERUSALEM

The GPE experience in Jerusalem is situated at the timeless meeting place of civilizations and ideas. In this program, students are offered a one-week orientation to the city and the surrounding area prior to starting their experiential learning opportunity. Students are often placed at institutions that operate in the areas of medicine, education, high tech, global affairs, conflict resolution & peace-building, interfaith dialogue, as well as other non-government organizations.

During the course of their experience, students stay at The University of Notre Dame at Tantur (UNDT), a unique intellectual oasis and home of the Jerusalem Global Gateway undergraduate program. All majors are welcome to apply for a placement in Jerusalem. Students interested in political science, global affairs, theology, history, environmental sciences, pre-health, and startups will have ample options for a placement. Hebrew or Arabic would be an asset for some positions, but not required. Most positions will operate in English.

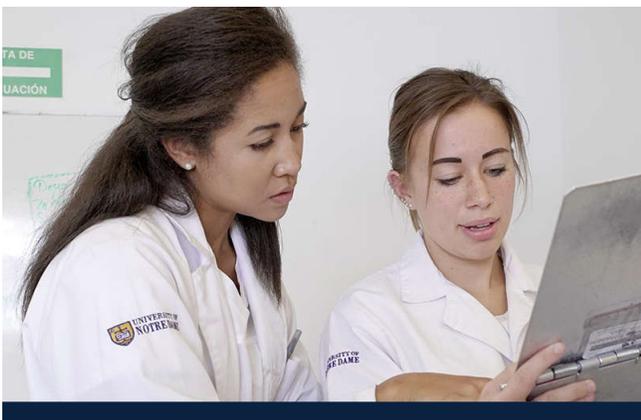

Middle East

GPE LOCATION PROFILES

MEXICO

The GPE in Mexico takes place in Mexico City, one of Latin America's largest and most vibrant cities. For students interested in the business or the non-profit track, positions in Mexico City may include experiences working with government offices, advocacy groups, or organizations in trade, finance, and policy. Spanish fluency may be required for some placements; for others, it is an asset but not a requirement. Students will count on the support of Notre Dame's Mexico City Global Center during their program.

Latin America

GPE LOCATION PROFILES

NAIROBI

The GPE in Kenya will take place in Nairobi. All students will begin with a one week orientation at the Notre Dame Nairobi Global Centre before departing to their placement site. Possible GPE organizations in Nairobi will include think tanks focused on economics/political science and education, a global technology company, a hospital, an international development organization and a hospital. All organizations in Kenya use English as the official language. Swahili language proficiency is not required however students should be willing to learn Swahili. A good fit would include students that are studying economics, political science, business management, Pre- medicine and social sciences. Visas are required for all non-Kenyan citizens to participate in the GPE program in Kenya. The cost of a single entry Kenyan visa is not included in the program fees so students can expect an additional fee of $51.

Africa
